

Institute for Regional and International Studies
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

The following locations are ineligible for DDRA research for the AY 2021 application cycle; this information is from the “Fulbright-Hays Maintenance Allowances” list in the G5 system (see that list for the latest updates):

Africa: Angola; Burkina Faso; Burundi; Cape Verde; Central African Republic; Chad; Comoros; Democratic Republic of the Congo; Djibouti; Equatorial Guinea; Eritrea; Gabon; Gambia; Guinea-Bissau; Liberia; Mali; Mauritania; Sao Tome and Principe; Seychelles; Somalia; South Sudan; Sudan; Zimbabwe

East Asia/Pacific: China; Hong Kong; North Korea

Eurasia: Azerbaijan; Belarus; Georgia; Kosovo; Moldova; Turkey: only Ankara and Istanbul eligible; Ukraine

Near East: Algeria; Egypt – please contact us; Iran; Iraq; Lebanon; Libya; Oman; Qatar; Saudi Arabia; Syria; Tunisia; Yemen

South & Central Asia: Afghanistan; Bangladesh; Pakistan

Western Hemisphere/the Americas: Bolivia; Cuba; Haiti; Nicaragua; Venezuela

New for the AY 2021 application cycle is the “Level 4” designation. Applicants should be aware that travel to countries designated as “Level 4: Do Not Travel” may be significantly delayed or cancelled due to travel restrictions. If selected, fellows will not be able to travel to countries designated as Level 4 until the State Department decreases the advisory level.

The following countries are currently (February 4, 2021) designated Level 4:

Argentina

Bhutan

Botswana

Brazil

French Guiana

India

Indonesia

Namibia

Russia

Turkmenistan

Turks and Caicos